FROM : OTR Orientation and Briefing Officer

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #37
10 September to 16 September 1958

DATE: 17 September 1958

MID-CAREER BRIEFINGS

1. On 9 and 10 September the two-day set of CIA briefings was presented to the 21 members of FSI's Mid-Career Course on Foreign Affairs. Mr. [] DDTR and former Deputy Director of the Foreign Service Institute, opened the program with appropriate words of welcome.

2. The entire program was excellent. All the speakers, half of whom were new, performed in high-caliber fashion. Mr. [] who replaced Mr. [] was excellent on the []. In his case he was effective precisely because he spoke informally--"off the top of my head," as he put it. Mr. [] gave a fine presentation on the DDI. This not only had the advantage of giving systematic treatment to this important side of the Agency, but it left Mr. Kirkpatrick more time to concentrate on the DDP, including a discussion of the various types of clandestine operations and of over-all CIA-State relationships. Though it comes as no surprise to anyone, Mr. Kirkpatrick is the star of the program. This bears repetition lest we take his services for granted. The other new speakers-- Mr. [] Dep. Ch./WH, and Mr. [] NEA-- were very well received.

SPECIAL BRIEFING

On 16 September a Special Briefing on NSC-USIB-CIA was given to []. He was accompanied by Mr. [] of EE.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE SCHOOL BRIEFING

On 11 September a briefing on the reorganization of the intelligence community was given to some 50 students in the current Postgraduate Course at the Naval Intelligence School.

CIA INTRODUCTION

On 15 September this program was conducted for 46 persons.
